

Bellmead

Vol. 11 –Apr., 2012

From the City Manager's Desk

Construction has begun to improve the sidewalks and landscaping on Bellmead Drive between Hogan and Maxfield Streets. The construction signs are up and everyone is asked to cooperate with the workers and to take care when driving in the area.

Local Elections

May 12, 2012 is the date for Bellmead City elections. Voting locations are as follows: Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Concord Road Baptist Church, Bellmead Fire Department, Bellmead Civic Center, and Oaklawn Baptist Church. Please visit the City website at www.bellmead.com for further information.

Attention Gardeners

Citizens of Bellmead!! Do you like gardening? Now is the perfect time to get those Spring and Summer Gardens going. City of Bellmead has a Community Garden for residents. We still have plots available first come first serve. This is a Community garden shared by all. This is a fun way to meet your neighbors as well as help the Community. For more information, please contact your Parks Board Committee.

Police Department News

Detective Haywood Sawyer has been named the 2011 Officer of the Year by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLOESE). The award was given for his concern for the City of Bellmead and his in depth investigations leading to strong convictions. Detective Sawyer will be presented his award in formal ceremonies at the state's capital in Austin on June 8.

Cats and Dogs

The Bellmead code of Ordinances requires that dogs and cats be registered annually with the city. Pet license and tags of 2012 are now available at City Hall for $2.00. See the receptionist at the front desk where you make water payments.

On the City's website at www.bellmead.com you will find a link to the Humane Society of Central Texas. Here the lost pets which they are caring for are pictured. We hope you find your pet here.
